

ProSource Flexible Containment Options

Flexible Containment Design for New Construction & Retrofit Projects

We offer a complete portfolio of Polargy and Tate containment solutions that support any legacy or new build environment. We offer a suite of solutions and pricing tailored for new construction or retrofit projects. We can assist with design, engineering, and installation.

ProSource is an approved Polargy and Tate Containment Partner

Polargy and Tate are leading providers of hot aisle and cold aisle containment solutions for new data center construction and retrofit projects. Let us assist with design and installation of a complete turnkey containment solution for your data center.

The right choice for protecting data center assets